

WATERLOO
Community School District

Engaged in Learning ● Prepared for Success

NEWS

February 7, 2012
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Sharon Miller at 433-1826
millers@waterloo.k12.ia.us

4TH ANNUAL BLACK HISTORY & SOUL FOOD DINNER AT FRED BECKER ELEMENTARY

WATERLOO—Fred Becker Elementary will celebrate Black History Month with their 4th Annual Black History & Soul Food Dinner on Thursday, February 9, 2012. The program begins at 5:30 pm in the Becker gymnasium with a dinner to follow in the Becker Café. The dinner includes ham and chicken, black-eyed peas, greens, macaroni and cheese, candied yams, potato salad, corn bread, tea or lemonade, and many different desserts. The dinner is free and the public is invited to attend.

The 5th grade Student Leaders will present the Black History Program. The program includes a play, "Midnight at the Black History Museum," singing, students giving short speeches about famous African Americans, and even an original rap.

Fred Becker Elementary is located at 1239 Sheldon Street, Waterloo, Iowa. For more information, contact Shara Adderley, Jill Hay, or Melissa Steggall at 319-433-2180.

--END--

About Waterloo Schools

Waterloo Schools, located within Black Hawk County, Iowa, provide a full range of educational services to students in pre-kindergarten through grade 12. Students attending Waterloo Schools are engaged in learning and prepared for success. The district prides itself on hiring quality educators, maintaining the latest educational resources, and ensuring a safe and healthy environment. Services include regular and enriched academic education, special education for students with special needs, career education, and numerous individualized programs such as specialized instruction for at-risk students and for limited-English-speaking students. Please visit our website at www.waterloo.k12.ia.us.