EDISON ELEMENTARY SETS SCHOOL CLOSING CEREMONY

WATERLOO – Edison Elementary announces its School Closing Ceremony on Monday, December 5, at 6:30 p.m.

Edison Elementary is closing at the end of the calendar year and will reopen January 4, 2012, at Fred Becker Elementary. The new Fred Becker Elementary is being constructed at 1239 Sheldon Street, near the old Black Hawk Elementary site.

Parents, former students, neighbors, and community members are invited to attend the closing ceremony in Edison's auditorium, 740 Magnolia Parkway, Waterloo. The event begins at 6:30 p.m. and will last approximately 45 minutes. Following the ceremony, guests can enjoy displays in the gym on Edison's past, self guided tours of the building, and refreshments in the cafeteria.
