NEW PARTNERS IN EDUCATION IN THE WATERLOO SCHOOLS

WATERLOO -- The Waterloo Board of Education recently welcomed two new Partners In Education.

CUNA Mutual Group, 2000 Heritage Way, Waverly, IA has partnered with Irving Elementary School.

CUNA Mutual Group joins the following Partners at Irving Elementary: Waterloo/Cedar Falls Courier,

GMAC Mortgage, First Baptist Church, Ravenwood Nursing & Rehab Center, Wells Fargo, Bethel

Presbyterian Church, Struxture Architects, First United Methodist Church, Trinity American Lutheran Church, First Presbyterian Church, and Church Row Historical Neighborhood Association.

Prairie Lakes Church, 118 High Street, Waterloo, IA has partnered with East High School. Prairie

Lakes Church joins: Bethany Bible Chapel, Elks Lodge #290, John Deere Drive Train, and Regions Bank.

The Partners in Education program is a school business partnership program that enhances the social and academic growth of students in the Waterloo Community Schools. Since 1986, the program has grown to include more than 190 businesses and organizations that are paired with one of the district's 11 elementary schools, 4 middle schools or 3 high schools. Businesses, civic organizations, faith institutions, neighborhood associations and others are invited to participate. For additional information, contact Crystal Buzza, Director of Strategic Partnerships with the Waterloo Schools at 433-1842.
