

TICKETS FOR EAST/WEST BOYS SUBSTATE GAME ON SALE

WATERLOO-As part of ongoing efforts to ensure a positive environment for student activities, ticket sale procedures are being announced for the upcoming boy's Substate Tournament basketball game between East and West High Schools at West on Monday, February 20, 2012. All student and adult tickets will be pre-sold at East and West High business offices and the Educational Service Center until Monday, February 20 at 1:00 pm.

Students and adults must present their IDs at the time of the purchase and also have it with them to gain admittance into the game Monday evening. There will be no ticket sales at the door.

Tickets cost $6.00 for all adults and students; no passes can be honored. The doors will be closed and no admission allowed after 8:00 pm Monday evening.

This is an Iowa High School Athletic Association tournament game and only people who have purchased their tickets in advance will be allowed entrance into the game.

This will be a fun and competitive basketball game where all can enjoy the game in a safe environment. Spectators' support and cooperation with this ticket procedure is greatly appreciated. Questions should be directed to the West High athletic office at 433-2707.
